Memorial to the Brave.

A solemn and impressive ceremony took place on Friday afternoon at the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, when a tablet erected by the Executive of the Bank in memory of the members of their staff who enlisted for military duty during the late war, was unveiled.

The ceremony took place shortly after 4 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of residents of the town and district.

Mr Stuart, the local manager, spoke a few words as to the purpose of the tablet.

He was then followed by F W Lundy, M.L.A., who, in an able and eloquent address, impressed upon his audience the debt which we all owed to the young men of this country who fought for us during the late war, that we might continue our lives in peace and happiness. Among other interesting facts disclosed by the speaker were that, out of a pre-war staff of 2400, the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce had contributed no less than 1701 men to the service of the country. Of this number, 258 had paid the supreme sacrifice. He also referred to the fact that, out of all the different classes of the community who had responded to the call of duty, none had given a better account of themselves than the clerks employed from the chartered banks of Canada.

Mr Lundy then mentioned that it was very fitting that we should all recognize that we owe a deep debt of gratitude to the young men who took up military duty, and he considered the idea of the Bank in erecting tablets, to be a constant reminder to both customers and employees, a most excellent one.

The ceremony closed with a short, appropriate address by Rev F E Wilson, himself a returned soldier.

The Liberal Candidate Chosen.

At the meeting Thursday night of the Liberals in Poll 49 delegates were elected to attend the Convention on the 20th, to select a candidate for the Provincial Constituency of Stony Plain.

Mr Webb, organizer for the Liberal party, was present. The chair was taken by Mr J H Mille, and Mr R L Ghiselin acted as secretary. The following were the delegates:

Mrs Wood, Mrs Kelly, Dr Oatway, John H Miller, Jacob Miller, Henry Miller, R L Ghiselin, R E Wood, W Kelly, J Kowensky, I Unbach, M B McColl, T Hutchison.

At the Convention held in Stony Plain Town Hall on Monday afternoon, 114 delegates assembled, representing the different polling divisions in the Stony Plain Constituency.

The chair was taken by Mr F J Franezy of Duffield, with Mr E J Willet acting as secretary. Hon J R Boyle was present during the proceedings.

The Credential Committee consisted of Messrs Ibsen, Campbell and Mew.

When nominations for candidates were called for, Mr Jacob Miller of Stony Plain was nominated by Mr John Schulz; the nomination was seconded by Mr Jos Wendel.

Mr E Pinchbeck of Winterton was nominated by Mr Jas Couch, seconded by Mr F Wild.

On the ballot being taken, 96 showed in favor of Mr Miller, and 18 for Mr Pinchbeck. The result was received with prolonged applause.

On motion of Mr Pinchbeck, the choice of the convention was made unanimous.

Mr Miller said in part—I think most of the delegates present know me personally, and those who do not know me personally they at least know me in a business way; and, if I have not secured your confidence by now, it is too late for me to stand here on this platform and try to win it in this moment by telling you how good I am.

I was born on a farm and worked there till 1903, when I went into the mercantile business with my brothers, and bought them out later; and for the past few years have been in the business alone. But along with the business I continued farming until 1919, as most of you know. And as to the farming end of it, there is no machine that I cannot operate, from a plow to a steam engine, for which I hold a certificate for the past 20 years.

Mr Karl Goerz Injured

On Monday noon, while Mr Goerz the elder was driving east on First street with a frisky team, the horses got out of hand and bolted south, throwing the driver out near the Shroves residence. On being picked up, it was found that Mr Goerz had received numerous injuries, one wheel of the wagon having passed over his chest. His injuries were attended to by Dr Oatway, but it will be some time before he gets around again, the gentleman being in his 74th year.

as their representative in the Provincial House should know the real wants of his constituents; and, if chosen at this convention and, later, at the election, I intend to make it my business to get acquainted with all in this constituency from one end to the other.

As to the roads, the people of the outlying districts have my sympathy for those they have to travel, as I well remember the roads I had to travel when I first came here. In those days they were nothing more than Indian trails; and if by my work I can improve present conditions to the extent I have seen the old Indian trails improved, I will feel that I have done something to justify your confidence.

As we do not want to hold up the business of the Convention, and the time is limited, I will not go more fully into my platform; but, if elected, I will be proud to be a supporter of the Stewart Government, because it is a Government with which the Opposition could find no fault at the last session; and, if you are willing to accept me on these terms, I ask for your support at this Convention, as well as at the coming election.

MADE IN CANADA

CONTAINS NO ALUM

Man's Greatest Asset

The universal membership enrollment campaign recently conducted by the Red Cross Society throughout Canada had for its object the arousing of the people to the vital need of greater personal interest in the matter of health. It was not a campaign to raise money, but a Dominion-wide and well organized effort to secure an active and intelligent public interest in measures for the prevention of disease, it being realized that an ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. The average man, woman and child gives little heed to their physical well-being until they are afflicted with some ailment, and then there is a hurry-up call for a doctor.

That there is need for a great awakening on the part of the public in regard to matters of personal hygiene and public health was demonstrated by the enforced medical examination of men for military services during the war years, but, startling as were the disclosures from those examinations, even more staggering are some recent figures and opinion contained in an article in The Journal of Health and Sanitation, written by Dr. J. H. Kellogg, superintendent of the famous Battle Creek Sanitarium.

Races of men have sometimes died out and utterly disappeared and Dr. Kellogg is of the opinion that this may happen to the whole human family if we continue to live under what he considers present unnatural conditions. Man, says Dr. Kellogg, is a very old-fashioned animal trying to live in a new-fangled way, in a manner that no animal ever before adventured, and so unnatural and so ill-adapted to his constitution and his requirements as to render his ultimate undoing inevitable. Man is by nature an open-air dweller. But the business and professional men, incarcerated behind the doors of their offices, with their assistants, die years before their time, and, on the average, twenty years sooner than the farmer whose vacation keeps him in the open.

Present-day habits and methods of living are held accountable for the physical deterioration of the race, and for the prevalence of diseases which are carrying off people by the millions. According to Dr. Kellogg, the United States loses from its population of 100,000,000 by death 1,500,000 people every year, while 3,000,000 people are sick all the time. In other words, one-fifth of the population are inefficient or lost. He estimates that an average of seven days are lost from labor by sickness every year. Tuberculosis is gaining ground, and kills one out of every ten of the population. Cancer kills one in twenty. Other maladies are rapidly gaining ground. In England and Wales the insane are increasing twice as fast as the sane, and in France ten times as fast. Coupled with these alarming symptoms, there is the serious fact that the birth rate in nearly all civilized countries is rapidly declining.

Dr. MacNeill, superintendent of the Mental Hospital at Battledore, Sask., made the statement recently in a public address at Regina that at the present rate of increase of mentally deficient people there would not be enough mentally efficient people to look after them fifty years hence.

In support of his contention that present habits and methods of living are responsible for existing conditions, Dr. Kellogg draws attention to one of the interesting lessons from the war, namely, the notable lowering of the death rate in several countries. In Denmark the death rate fell 35 per cent, due in the opinion of Dr. Hindede, the Danish food controller, to simpler habits of living, and especially the low-protein diet and the use of coarse bread. In Germany, too, diabetes has practically disappeared from the same cause, and gout, formerly very common, is now unknown.

Good health is the greatest asset any person can possess. Wealth is of little value to a man if he does not possess good health so that he may enjoy it. Without health no one can get much pleasure out of life. Lacking health no person can be wholly efficient. If health is waste. Yet the best medical experts agree that, by taking proper precautions there is little reason for sickness, and that many diseases which now number their victims by the millions could be readily stamped out.

Health studies and health conditions must be given first place and foremost attention in our public schools. People must be made to understand that soundness of body is fundamentally essential in business, art, literature, politics and religion, as well as in warfare, sports and industry. By creating an enthusiasm for health promotion and physical perfection a long step forward will be taken towards the realization of that better state for all people towards which the world is blindly groping. A popular, nationwide Crusade for Good Health is imperative. Governments can do much, but the main essential is an aroused and active interest on the part of every individual citizen. The promotion of health is the only real, lasting and basic national policy for any country.

Japs Plan To Raft Timber From B. C.

Think Davis Structure Will Stand Trans-Pacific Passage

A Japanese firm proposes to make another attempt to raft timber from British Columbia to Japan. They believe that the Davis raft structure, of which the outside rows of logs are laced with cable, can be made to stand the trans-Pacific passage. The first raft will leave this coast about August. It will have a super-structure of piled logs, strongly laced. Hitherto rafted logs have not withstood long sea journeys, except one which was taken from San Francisco to China about twenty years ago. Favored by calm seas the raft was safely landed. The Chinese, however, unable to big logs, took ten years to cut up this boom, using long, hand trip saws to make the boards.

One of the most effective vermifuge medicines is Worm's Worm Powders. They will not only clear the stomach and bowels of worms, but will prove a very considerable medicine for children in regulating the infantile system and maintaining it in a healthy condition. There is nothing in their composition that will injure the most delicate stomachs and no dangerous side effects, and they can be given to children in the full assurance that they will utterly destroy all worms.

Canada's Huge Wheat Area

Prairie Provinces Have More Than Ninety Per Cent. of the Wheat Acreage

The total acres to wheat this season in the Dominion of Canada is estimated at 18,654,100 acres, an increase of half a million acres over the 1920 area, constituting a new record for this grain. Seven hundred and nine thousand one hundred acres of this is seeded to fall wheat, leaving 17,945,000 to be sown this spring.

The prairie provinces have more than ninety per cent. of the Dominion's wheat acreage, with 17,418,900 acres. This shows an increase of 577,000 acres over the previous year.

Crossing Stock With An Automobile.

If a motorist runs down a pig it is sure to be a blooded Berkshire, remarks the Boston correspondent. Every chicken slaughtered is a pedigreed bird worth $40 to $50. A yellow hamster is a wire-haired fox terrier. A calf is always of Alderney or Guernsey blood—in fact, nothing seems to improve stock like crossing it with an automobile.

Fiction is less strange than the truth because we miss it often.

WOULD NOT BE WITHOUT BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. W. Bessley, Millie Roche, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the last eight months and would not be without them. I used them for indigestion and teething and my baby is cutting his teeth without any trouble whatever. I can highly recommend the Tablets to other mothers." When Mrs. Bessley says thousand of other mothers say, the Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion and making teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

New Camera's Great Range

Can Photograph From Height Where Airplane Is Invisible.

Scientists of the United States Bureau of Standards revealed the details of a new photographic process but recently perfected. The discovery is expected to be of tremendous military value to the air service, as well as to have incalculable scientific and commercial application. It will give to the eye of the camera power which nature has never endowed to the human eye, for it will be possible for airplanes to make photographs from heights so great that the planes themselves will be invisible from the earth, and to penetrate haze that the human eye cannot pierce.

Pains About the Heart

ANY derangement of the heart's action is alarming. Frequently pains about the heart are caused by the formation of gas arising from indigestion.

Relief from this condition is obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Chronic indigestion results from sluggish liver action, constipation of the bowels and inactive kidneys.

Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills arouse these organs to activity they afford lasting relief for indigestion and overcome the many annoying symptoms.

Health of Animals

Provincial Veterinarian Says Condition of Stock Improving.

Dr. M. P. McClellan, provincial veterinarian for Saskatchewan, states that one of the best ways of judging how cattle came through the winter is by observing the condition of animals at the spring sales. By this test, their condition is incomparably better than a year ago. At the present time the general health of animals was never better. "The steadily increasing demand," says Dr. McClellan, "for blackleg filtrate and vaccine, which is handled by the livestock branch for the convenience of veterinarians and stockmen, amply testifies to the intelligent attitude adopted by the stockmen of the province toward preventive animal medicine."

An Oil that is Famous—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far ahead enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

Clerk—Do you want a room for 50 or 75 cents?

Stranger—What's the difference between them?

Clerk—In the 75-cent rooms we put a rat-trap.

THE MISERY OF BACKACHE

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Meaford, Ont.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache, and I also had a few nervous twinges. I felt dizzy and nervous, and was without energy. I had to force myself to do my work, and was always tired. Saw a Pinkham advertisement which induced me to take the Vegetable Compound, and my back gradually stopped aching and I felt lighter in spirit. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound with pleasure to all I meet who complain as I did."—MILDRED BROOK, Meaford, Ont.

Woman's Precious Gift

The one which she should most zealously guard is her health, but she often neglects to do so in season until some ailment peculiar to her sex has fastened itself upon her. When so affected women may try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has been wonderfully successful in restoring health to suffering women.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

A Chicago banker was dictating a letter. "Tell Mr. Williams," he said, "that I will meet him in Schenectady." "How do you spell Schenectady?" asked the stenographer. "S-C-E-E-E-E-E-E-E-E. Oh, tell him I'll meet him in Albany."

A SPLENDID TONIC FOR WEAK PEOPLE

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Act On the Blood and Nerve.

Food is as important to the sick person as medicine, more so in many cases. A badly chosen diet may retard recovery. In the case of the natural appetite is the best guide to follow; in sickness the appetite is often lost.

Proper food and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a fine tonic, harmless and certain in their action, which is to build up the blood and restore vitality to the run-down system. For growing girls who are thin and pale, for pale, tired women, and for old people who fail in strength, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. Thousands have testified to the benefit derived from the use of this medicine, among them is Mrs. William Gallie, Hantsport, N.S., who says: "Before I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was so weak and run down that I could hardly do my own work. I often suffered from headaches and was very nervous. I then began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I can truthfully say I have found them the best medicine I have ever taken. You may depend upon it. I will advise other sufferers to take these pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Fringe Invades The Realm Of Pyjamas

By Marie Belmont.

Fringe is in high favor at the present time for adorning the varied garb of lovely woman. These pyjamas inspired by the cowboy's picturesque shirt, show how effective fringe really is. They are made of pale blue crepe de chine and the fringe is of blue and pink silk. The shirt is generously long, so that it may be bloused about the figure. A soft fold of the crepe de chine is draped around the waist-line and fastened at the side. The collar duplicates the gay handkerchief of the cowboy, and is cut from blue crepe de chine. The turnback cuffs are also made of blue crepe de chine.

Our slogan for the coming year should be, "Buy at Home." Add to your own and your neighbor's prosperity by keeping the money circulating in our own district.

FRED ROBERTS, of Vancouver, B.C., says he knows what it is to enjoy good health for the first time in six years—Rheumatism is relieved and has gained ten pounds.

"For the first time in six years I know what it is to enjoy good health, and since it was Tanlac that got rid of my troubles and put me into such fine shape, I think it is up to me to state the facts for the benefit of others," said Fred Roberts, 1624 Georgia St., East, Vancouver, B.C.

"I suffered for years from biliousness and my appetite varied a lot. Sometimes I would hardly touch a bite and other times I would eat a hearty meal, but, as sure as fate, if I did eat anything, I had to suffer for it afterwards. I would get nauseated and bloated up with gas so bad I'd have palpitation of the heart and almost choke for breath. I had violent headaches that left me weak and lifeless and suffered with such awful pains in the back that it was agony to stoop over. I also had rheumatism in my right leg which gave me a lot of trouble and which kept me awake so much at night that I was tired most of the time."

"I've only taken four bottles of Tanlac so far, but already I have gotten wonderful results from it. I have a good appetite, can eat anything I fancy and never have a sign of biliousness or gas or pain afterwards. My food seems to do me good too, for I feel much stronger and have gained ten pounds in weight. I'm not bothered with pains in the back any more and the rheumatism has entirely disappeared. I now sleep well at night and get up feeling fine. My wife also has been taking Tanlac with wonderful results and she joins me in expressing our thanks for the great good we have gotten from it."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Weapon Regulations.

Further changes in the law with regard to possession of firearms were made by amendments to the Criminal Code passed at the session of Parliament just concluded;
and the former provisions which required practically every person in the country to secure a permit for his shotgun or hunting rifle have been greatly modified.

Persons of British or Canadian nationality are now under no restriction, except that they may not carry concealed weapons.

Two main provisions affect the public—The first makes it an offence for any person to carry in public a pistol, revolver, bowie knife, or other offensive weapon that may be concealed, unless the person holds a permit.

The other clause sets out that every person who is an alien in committing an offence if he has in his possession a revolver, shotgun, or other firearm or weapon, or any ammunition, unless he has obtained a permit.

By the Alberta Game Act, power to issue permits is conferred upon a number of officials, including Postmasters, Mayors and Secretaries of towns and cities, J.P.'s, Commissioners for affidavits, Notaries Public, members of the A.P.P., and Game Guardians.

These officials are expected to see that permits are granted only to persons of discretion and good character.

Will Oppose Renewal Of Anglo-Japanese Treaty

Said That Premier Meighen Will Use His Influence to Have Treaty Denounced.

London.—The advisability of renewing the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, a question in which Canada is vitally interested, will be the first subject before the conference of Prime Ministers in session here.

Premier Hughes of Australia, interpreting the public sentiment of his country, will urge renewal, but Premier Meighen is also certain to throw the whole weight of his influence toward having the treaty denounced. The Canadian premier was willing to support a renewal of the Alliance providing it could be shown that such renewal was necessary to British interests, but it has become clear that no vital empire interest is involved and there is a strong sentiment here, both in Government circles and in the press, against the treaty, he has practically determined to fight against renewal to the utmost of his power.

The Premier of Canada will base his opposition to the treaty on three grounds: First—That the treaty, which made it necessary in 1911 have since disappeared.

Second—That renewal of the treaty would be regarded as a challenge to the United States where the Harding administration and the new Congress have just taken a step in the direction of disarmament, and,

Third—That the formation of special alliances is antagonistic to the spirit of the times and to the endeavor that the world is making toward disarmament and peace.

In this attitude Mr. Meighen is certain to encounter strong opposition. Premier Hughes has been talking and giving interviews to the British press and is demanding the treaty be renewed. He urges, of course, that it be framed in such a way as to be satisfactory to the United States, but few here believe such a thing to be possible. The Australian Premier's strong card will be the attitude which Premier Meighen is almost certain to adopt on the question of naval defense. The Canadian Premier urging that this question be postponed until the next constitutional conference.

B. C. Would Restrict Japanese Immigration

Victoria.—The Provincial Government, through Premier Oliver, has forwarded to the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen in London, a cablegram strongly urging that any renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty should preserve to Canada the right to restrict Japanese immigration, something which the existing treaty does not stipulate. In connection with this subject, Hon. E. G. Barrow, minister of agriculture, has collected data showing to what extent Japanese and Chinese are engaged in the business of agriculture and horticulture in this province. This information has been forwarded to Hon. Dr. Tomin, who accompanied Premier Meighen on his mission to England.

Greek Offensive Beginning

British Reserves Relieving Division On Sea of Marmora.

Constantinople.—Opening of the Greek offensive against the Turkish Nationalists in Asia Minor, is believed to be imminent. British reserves are relieving the Greek eleventh division at Ismid, on the Sea of Marmora, which is proceeding to the Ushak front, near the Bagdad Railway, northeast of Smyrna.

The allied high commissions here have authorized the Greek fleet to operate from Gallipoli, at the southern western end of the Sea of Marmora, up through the Bosphorus and along the Black Sea to Baku on the Georgian coast. The fleet is expected to this work a squadron consisting of 25 warships.

Ice Cream Is Luxury.

Ottawa.—In a judgment issued, the Board of Railway Commissioners refused the application of the manufacturers of ice cream that this commodity should be placed in the second class for express purposes and not in the first class as at present. In rendering his judgment, Chief Commissioner F. B. Carvell declares that ice cream is essentially a luxury.

Old-Time Yarns in the West

By O. G. MAS-ES (Little Clerk).

(Copyright)

I was managing the Fairford Post of the Hudson's Bay Company in the winter of 1874-5 and was fortunate enough to own a splendid train of dogs that I have mentioned in former sketches. Mr. Isaacs Cowie at Manitoba House was my immediate chief and at his request I took a young sleigh dog to train with myself. These had a peculiar fast slinging trot which covered the ground in an amazing way.

I had occasion to visit Manitoba House on the Post. It was commonly called, and started early one morning in the dead of winter, hitching up the strange dog with my own. As I was taking a carole and travelling light, I intended riding all the way at a faster pace than usual. We were about fifteen miles out from Fairford and well on towards the centre of the frozen lake, when feeling tired and cramped I called a halt and got out of the carole for a few minutes to stretch about and bring the circulation back. Turning my back on the dogs for a minute I heard a clatter of bells and off they went in a flash, fortunately in the right direction. Running at top speed, I managed to stop about ten or eleven miles, but noted with dismay they were gradually gaining ground and I was blown, also sweating profusely, as I had far too many clothes on for a dogrunner. I stopped and rested a minute or two, then taking off my heavy coat jogged along at a steady pace. But gradually the train drew further and further away until lost to sight, and then I had only the marks of their claws on the hard drifted snow for a guide, and even these gradually disappeared as soon as light snow was falling. My hard running at the start had been too much and then it was a long time since breakfast and naturally all my grub was on the sleigh. I began to feel very much exhausted and an overpowering desire to rest at any cost came over me. Placing my capot on the ice I lay down on my back and stretched out my arms. My eyes closed and I verily believe I would have been fast asleep in two minutes, but I found my right hand holding something and on holding it to my sleepy eyes, lo and behold, it was a little frozen mouse, one of the kind with long noses. Goodness knows how he ever had got out here at last two miles from the shore, but on gazing at him a sudden conviction came over me that if I once fell asleep I would be like the mouse in a few hours—frozen stiff. With that I swiftly regained my feet, piled up my heavy coat, miter and mittens on the ice and started for the Narrow at a steady trot.

Provisionally for me an enterprising Yankee had built a log cabin right in the centre of the right-of-way of the old Canadian Pacific location, which, as old-timers will remember, had decided on this route. This cabin I struck just about sundown and I was about all in, no food during the day, the overhauling in the morning and now chilly had come on and my legs felt like lead. My hands were too numb to rap at the door, so I ran against it, and on its opening, collapsed on the floor. Like old pioneers he was extremely hospitable and taking off my outer clothes placed me in a warm bed, rubbed my limbs and gave me small doses of whiskey and water, so in a short time I was able to sit up and eat some supper.

Next morning I was at the Post bright and early—hoping to find the dogs there, but no signs of them. We at once sent out a search party as there was some valuable furs at the back of the carole. A silver fox amongst them, but the searchers returned in the evening, reporting no luck. Several days elapsed and I was disconsolate, as parties had been out daily but could find no trace of the dogs. One evening, as I was looking out over the lake, I saw a dog-train coming in from the northeast at an unusually fast rate and calling Cowie to bring the field glasses we soon decided they were the missing dogs, but as they reached the landing there were only four, the stranger having disappeared.

A young Indian was riding in the carole and told the following story: "I went out on foot to visit a line of wolf traps and on getting near the last one on the east side of the lake I noted some large animals walking round it. When they caught sight of me they came tearing in great bounds and thinking they were wolves I prepared to defend myself with an axe the only weapon I carried. But when I saw they were dogs I then knew these were the train that had run away from Ogemase, and my, but they were glad to see me and licked my face and hand. On going up to the carole I found Mr. Cowie's dog in my trap with a solidly frozen foot and the harness still on him! So, as he would be no further use, I knocked him on the head for well he deserved it. On examining the dog harness I noted that three of the belly bands were chewed in half, and on his telling this I at once realized what had happened. Nero, my second dog, was a slim, thin haired creature with a very small head and could get out of his traces at any time my simply slipping the collar over his head. Then he apparently had set to work and released his brothers one by one, leaving the unfortunate strange to his own devices."

COULDN'T DO HOUSEWORK

HEART SO BAD

Many women become run down and worn out by their household cares and duties never ending and sooner or later find themselves with weak hearts and shattered nerves.

When the heart becomes weak and the nerves unstraining, a woman to look after her household or social duties. The least exertion or excitement leaves her in an exhausted condition, and not fit to do anything.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, you will be wise if you take a course of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Daniel Beaton, Loganville, N.S., writes—"As I was troubled with a weak heart for nearly two years I am writing to tell you what your great remedy, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, has done for me. My heart was so bad at night I could not sleep; I would take smothering spells, and I was so weak I could not do my work. I consulted two doctors, but got no results. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I have taken six boxes, and I am completely relieved. I think they are the best medicine for heart trouble there is."

Invalidation of Grain Act Would Make Chaos in Canada.

"Moose Jaw"—A chaotic condition of affairs would exist in the country should the Canada Grain Act be found ultra vires, the opinion expressed by Justice Hyndman, chairman of the Royal Grain Inquiry Commission. In discussing the legal status of the commission and the Grain Act, His Lordship pointed out that the situation would be similar to that which would exist should the Temperance Act be found unconstitutional. In such event, any person who wished to would be able to peddle whiskey without interference from the law. If the Canada Grain Act was found to be ultra vires of Parliament, this condition would obtain in the grain business. His Lordship intimated that he considered it possibly the most serious situation which had confronted Canada for a long time.

Treaty Money For Indians in North

Edmonton.—The Indian treaty party distributing government money to the Mackenzie River natives comprises six men, with H. A. Conroy at their head and will be in the north till the end of August. The party is travelling on a house boat towed by Hudson's Bay power boat Hibago. Side trips will be made up some of the smaller streams by canoe. About $10,000 will be paid out in treaty to the Indians north of Fort Providence. The money was sent ahead to Fort McMurray in care of the Hudson's Bay Company and is now being taken with the party for disbursement along the way. The itinerary of the treaty cashiers will extend to Fort McPherson at the end of the line, this being the first time that the Mackenzie River tribes have ever been included in the scheme.

Raising the Standard

Manitoba May Insist On Higher Qualifications For Teachers.

Winnipeg.—A movement has been launched to raise the standard of education in Manitoba by insisting on higher qualifications for public school teachers. A couple of years ago the province was short of teachers. Today, according to those in touch with the situation, there are plenty to go round.

Under these circumstances it is believed the time is opportune to raise the standard.

Britain Sends Warning To Turks.

Constantinople.—The British have warned the Turkish Nationalists that any attempt to take Constantinople will mean war with Great Britain. The purpose of sending a British brigade from India to relieve the Greeks at Ismid is to frustrate any such Nationalist attempt to occupy Constantinople.

France Hindering Silesian Adjustment

Lack of Co-operation is Producing Serious Situation.

London.—Great Britain, in a further communication to France on the Silesian question (delivered through Lord Hardinge, British ambassador to France, calls attention to co-operate in the restoration of order in Silesia, and declares that the lack of concerted action is producing an increasingly serious situation. Great Britain suggests that all the British troops in Silesia be placed under British command which would involve the relinquishment of French military control at some points. It is explained that this would have the effect of freeing Silesian forces for independent action.

Our New Serial Story.

Nearly everybody has heard of the fame of the Canadian author, Robert J C Stead, who is not only one of Canada's best writers of fiction, but is an author who has written most intimately concerning life and conditions in the prairie West.

We have been very fortunate in securing the serial rights of one of Mr Stead's best books, "The Homesteaders." The first instalment of this story will appear in an early issue.

Readers of "The Homesteaders" will feel instinctively that the author is a man who has lived among the people of whom he writes.

We commend this story to our readers. Watch for the opening chapters. If not a regular subscriber, to this paper, now is a good time to send in your subscription, so that you will miss no part of this interesting serial.
